(a) A new application for labor certification by the same employer involving the same occupation may be filed at any time after the expiration of 6 months from the date of a denial of certification by the Certifying Officer, except that, if the certification was denied solely because the wage or salary offered was below the prevailing wage, the employer may reapply immediately pursuant to §§ 656.21, 656.21a, or 656.23, as appropriate.

(b) An alien who is denied a labor certification for a Schedule A occupation, except for employment as a physical therapist or as a professional nurse, may at any time have an employer file for a labor certification on the alien’s behalf pursuant to § 656.21. (a) Except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, a labor certification is valid indefinitely. Labor certifications for Household Domestic Service Workers and teachers which were granted under the previous regulations at 29 CFR part 60 and which lapsed after one year, shall be deemed automatically revalidated on the effective date of this part.

(b) (1) Labor certifications involving job offers shall be deemed validated as of the date of the local Employment Service office date-stamped the application; and

(2) Labor certifications for Schedule A occupations shall be deemed validated as of the date the applications were dated by the Immigration or Consular Officer.

(2) A labor certification involving a specific job offer is valid only for the particular job opportunity, the alien for whom certification was granted, and for the area of intended employment stated on the Application for Alien Employment Certification form.

(d) After issuance labor certifications are subject to invalidation by the INS or by a Consul of the Department of State upon a determination, made in accordance with those agencies, procedures or by a Court, of fraud or willful misrepresentation of a material fact involving the labor certification application. If evidence of such fraud or willful misrepresentation becomes known to a RA or to the Director, the RA or Director, as appropriate, shall notify in writing the INS or State Department, as appropriate. A copy of the notification shall be sent to the regional or national office, as appropriate, of the Department of Labor’s Office of Inspector General.

The application, of course, may be denied for other reasons pursuant to this part.
